

PRINCIPLES OF A LEARNING COLLEGE AT COCONINO COMMUNITY COLLEGE
--

The Learning College is a new paradigm for 21st century higher learning that at Coconino Community College:

- 1. Promotes learning for everyone within the college community.
- 2. Builds on the basic philosophy that the learner and learning are central in all activities of the institution.
- 3. Encourages substantive growth in individual learners.
- 4. Reflects the core values of Coconino Community College: people, learning and growth, quality, ethics, community, and respect.
- 5. Creates and provides as many learning options as possible for learners.
- 6. Creates a learning environment that is open, anticipatory, and responsive to the changing needs of learners.
- 7. Engages learners as full partners in the learning process and culture, empowering them to become more active and responsible for their own learning.
- 8. Transcends the classroom whereby the entire college community facilitates learning.
- 9. Defines the roles of learning facilitators by the needs of the learners.
- 10. Engages learners in collaborative learning activities both within and outside the classroom.
- 11. Expands learning opportunities by involving the entire community.
- 12. Documents improved and expanded learning.
- 13. Creates and engenders an open and dynamic organizational culture that promotes and rewards learning.