Q. Because the campus is closed, I cannot bring in my rented textbooks. Will I get charged for the textbooks due to missing the due date?

A. While the due date for rented books has not changed, the “non-return charge date” has been extended 15 days past your current return due date to allow time for your mailed book to reach the store. To avoid late charges, please have your book in transit by the due date.

Q. Can I BUY or EXTEND my rentals on the website?

A. If you originally rented your textbook in the store, there is no option to buy or extend the rental on the website at this time. If you rented your textbook online, you have an option to buy or extend the rental on the website, on the Rentals page:

Q: I placed an order but I have not received any confirmation my item has shipped. What's going on?

A: Your item may be shipping from a location that has closed due to COVID-19 concerns. Your order will be filled when we are able to access that location again. Items that are in this situation are marked as "backordered" on the website. However, when you placed your order, the ship-from location may not yet have been closed or was in the process of closing so this backorder status may not have been displaying, check the item again now for confirmation. Sorry for the inconvenience during this uncertain time. If you wish to cancel an order in this status, use the same contact form described above.

Q: I need to purchase upcoming term textbooks and supplies; do I need to come to the store?

A: No, instead you can order from this bookstore website, which continues to be open.

Q: My textbooks are in my dorm room or other location which I cannot access due to COVID-19 restrictions, how can I get a copy of those books?

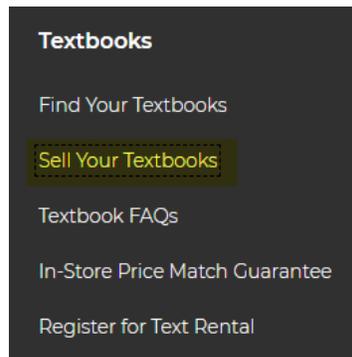

A: There are digital eBook options available for many titles available through the store website. See the textbook page on the site for details.
