Most unmarried students under the age of 24 are considered dependent for federal financial aid purposes and must provide parental information. In cases where parents provide absolutely no financial support for the student and refuse to provide their information on the student's FAFSA, the student may submit this request along with a Federal Direct Loan Request Form to receive only unsubsidized loans.

Who is required to sign this form?

1. Parent(s) whose information would have been used to complete the FAFSA:
2. If the student's parents are legally married, both signatures are required.
3. If parents are divorced or legally separated, the parent whom the student lived with more during the last 12 months or the parent who provided the most financial support in the last 12 months is required to complete the form.

Parent(s) must initial each statement below indicating they understand the impact of this request:

___ ___ I do not and will not provide any financial support to my child, including but not limited to: cash support, non-cash support such as food & housing, use of my vehicle, health or car insurance coverage, groceries, rent, utilities, tuition, books, school supplies, or co-signing any type of loan for the student.

___ ___ I stopped financially supporting my child on this date: _____

___ ___ It is in the student's best interest to submit a FAFSA with the parent's income & household information. This may allow for the student to qualify for a subsidized loan, which is better than an unsubsidized loan.

___ ___ My child will only be eligible for federal unsubsidized loans if this request is approved.

___ ___ Interest will immediately begin accruing on my child's loan.

___ ___ If this request is approved, my child will not be eligible for financial aid, including but not limited to:

- Federal Pell Grant; Federal SEOG Grant, Federal Work Study
- Financial need-based scholarships
- Federal subsidized student loans; Federal parent PLUS loans

I certify that I refuse to provide income & household information on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), my financial support for my child has ended and I will not provide any financial support, as indicated above, in the future. I certify that information provided on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. Purposely giving false or misleading information may result in a delay or denial of my federal financial aid and I may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison, or both.
