

IF I Had Only Known...

ADVICE TO FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS FROM GRADUATING STUDENTS

ADVICE FROM GRADUATES TO NEW STUDENTS

- Register early.
- Remember financial aid deadlines.
- See an advisor for a degree plan.
- Read the College Catalog.
- Know the requirements for your degree or certificate.
- Take prerequisites early.
- Know when requirements are offered.
- Consider all of your options.
- Persevere with difficult subjects.
- Be willing to work hard.
- Show up for class.
- Turn work in on time.
- Explore your interests.
- READ, READ, READ!
- Talk to the faculty! They are a wonderful resource.
- When you genuinely work hard and give a good effort, the instructors will try harder to help you succeed.
- Don't be afraid to ask--help is available.
- Don't let a subject that you find difficult discourage you from obtaining the goals you want.
- Don't procrastinate!
- Practice typing and buy comfortable shoes.
