How Far: Myths & Distance in our Night Sky

Tuesday, March 10, 2020 | 6:00 PM
CCC Fourth Street Innovation Center | Room B34

What is a light year? Is a parsec a real unit of measurement, or was Han Solo just making it up? And how far is the sun from Earth, really?

Join us for an informative Comet Talk that puts space into perspective, led by Emeritus Astronomer Dr. Nat White.

Comet Talks are free and open to the public
